

February Student of the Month

Shelby Parsons has been selected as February's sixth grade Student of the Month! Shelby was a clear choice as she demonstrates perseverance on a daily basis. She works diligently to learn the skills and concepts taught in her classes. She always strives to do her very best. When a topic is tough for her, Shelby doesn't shy away from asking questions, and taking risks. She is most often seen with a smile on her face and her positive demeanor is quite infectious. She encourages her peers to also do their very best and is a positive role model and friend. We're lucky to have Shelby in the 6th grade this year.

Congratulations
Shelby!

The seventh grade team is excited to recommend Sage Freund for Student of the Month. Sage is a positive role model for her peers. She leads by example through her strong work ethic and positive attitude. She is kind and polite toward her teachers and classmates, and she helps create a positive classroom environment. Congratulations, Sage!

Congratulations
Sage!

Zach does an excellent job every day. He comes to class with a positive attitude, he actively participates in class, he encourages his peers, and he is always available to assist others. Zach has a strong work ethic, and he works diligently to produce outstanding work. It is a pleasure to work with Zach and share in his continued success.

Congratulations
Zach!